

COMPLICIT
Film Screening and Panel Discussion
United Nation Human Rights Council Side-Event
16 March - 16.30 to 18.00 - Room XXII of the Palais des Nations

Introduction from: Film Director Heather White
COMPLICIT Screening (25 mins total)

Panel 1: 15 min

Existing Agreements: Ways in which the public sector can elevate multilateral agreements

Panellists:

UN Special Rapporteur- Baskut Tuncak (TBC)
Human Rights Officer, Right to Development Section, OHCHR Susan Mathews
Labour Action China Executive Director Jason Chan

Q&A 15 Mins

Moderator:

Think-Film Impact Production & COMPLICIT Associate Producer Danielle Turkov

Panel 2: 15 mins

Roadmap to strengthening international standards through intergovernmental cooperation

- The Center for International Environmental Law David Azoulay Environmental Health Program Director
- Earthjustice Permanent Representative to the UN in Geneva Yves Lador
- NGO Forum for Health President Ms Odile Frank

Q&A 15 Mins

Moderator:

Think-Film Impact Production & COMPLICIT Associate Producer Dwayne Menezes

Biography

Heather White

COMPLICIT Director

Susan Mathews

Human Rights Officer, Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR)

Susan Mathews is an international lawyer with specialised expertise in the areas of development and human rights. Ms. Mathews has worked in OHCHR for nearly 10 years in various roles and presently works on trade, investment and human rights. Specifically she has focused on human rights impact assessments (HRIAs) in the area of trade and how they can be a useful tool in guiding and defining trade policy. In the area of investment, recent focus has been on responsible contracts and on ensuring accountability in public private partnerships to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)

Jason Chan

Director Labour Action China

David Azoulay

Environmental Health Program Director at The Center for International Environmental Law

Yves Lador

Earthjustice Permanent Representative to the UN in Geneva

Ms Odile Frank

President NGO Forum for Health

Dr Dwayne Menezes

Co-Director Think-Film Impact Production

Danielle Turkov

Co-Director Think-Film Impact Production

